

Duara News Item July 2010

Friends and donors of the Duara Foundation

From now on we will keep you updated on Maji Mazuri events and progress with short and frequent news items. A lot of amazing things are happening in the Mathare Ghetto and this way we hope to inform you the best we can.

Launch of the new website: www.majimazuri.org

With the help of Duara and other international partners the Kenyan organisation Maji Mazuri has been able to launch a new website. This website, although still under construction, has blogs, video and photo updates and the latest news from the programs. We would like to invite you to become part of this online community that seeks to support children, youth and their parents in the Mathare Ghetto to build a better future for themselves. Maji Mazuri's 4 main programs are:

- Economic empowerment
- Education and talent
- Community development ant
- Mental and physical health

Traveling to Kenya

Naomi van Stapele is traveling to Kenya on 30 July to conduct Ph.D. field research and will work in Kenya and with Maji Mazuri for 10 months. One of her activities, besides research, will be the training of teachers to increase the level of education within the Maji Mazuri education projects and help teachers deal with traumatized students and students who have learning difficulties.

Donations to support Duara's work with Maji Mazuri are very welcome at:
